How Do You Feel About LGBT People?

The purpose of this self-examination is not to try to change your attitudes and values, but to help you become more conscious of how you personally feel. For each statement below, please circle "SA" if you strongly agree with the expressed opinion, "A" if you agree, "N" if you are neutral, "D" if you disagree, or "SD" if you strongly disagree.

strongly agree ⟷ strongly disagree

SA	A	N	D	SD	1. I feel comfortable when I am with people I know who are lesbian, gay, bisexual, or transgender.
SA	A	N	D	SD	2. If I found out that a friend was lesbian, gay, bisexual, or transgender, I think our relationship would be less close in the future.
SA	A	N	D	SD	3. Lesbians, gay men, and bisexuals are always trying to seduce heterosexuals and make them gay.
SA	A	N	D	SD	4. I am uncomfortable around men who are feminine and women who are masculine.
SA	A	N	D	SD	5. Lesbians, gay men, and bisexuals shouldn't be teachers because they might make their students gay.
SA	A	N	D	SD	6. Lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender people are immoral.
SA	A	N	D	SD	7. Transgender people are mentally ill.
SA	A	N	D	SD	8. I am able to accept open expressions of affection between same-gender couples.
SA	A	N	D	SD	9. Teenagers cannot know if they are lesbian, gay, bisexual, or transgender or not.
SA	A	N	D	SD	10. If a close friend came out to me as lesbian, gay, bisexual, or transgender, it would make us closer because the person was revealing a very important part of themselves.
SA	A	N	D	SD	11. I am against programs and services organized specifically to meet the social and cultural needs of LGBT people.
SA	A	N	D	SD	12. I consider myself to be an ally of LGBT people